

Year 12 Summer Transition Work

Summer Transition Work

In order to hit the ground running in September we would like you to be familiar with the context of the Tudors in order to have a good understanding of the world in which this topic is set and so you will have a video and an academic text for to look at for this topic. There is also further extended reading that is open to students who wish to read further academic texts on the topic.

1C Tudor England 1485-1603 Summer Work

1. The War of the Roses was a battle between two of England's most powerful households for control of England's throne. The result of this conflict was the creation of the Tudor dynasty. Your first task will be a research task where you research what the War of the Roses was and why it was important, this does not need to be a thorough search as much of it will be covered in later tasks. The research information can be found here. You need to answer all the questions at the end of the text. (30 Minutes)
2. The next stage of your research will involve watching the 'War of the Roses' documentary below. You will get a fuller understanding of the importance of the War of the Roses and why the Tudors were able to develop from this. You will need to make Cornell notes on this video clip. (1 Hour)
3. At this stage you should have a good understanding of what the War of the Roses was and why it led to the creation of the Tudor dynasty. Next you will read the academic text that you were given in order to have a developed understanding of the period. (1 Hour)

Total time spent (2.5 Hours)
